

Legal Literacy for child protection - 2025

LLN organized awareness raising workshops and oratantions program for 634participants(333 women and 301 men) including students, teachers, school nurses, school management committee, guardians and Municipality staffs from Tokha Municipality, Kathmandu.

LLN Highlights Research Findings on Corporal Punishment at Janakpur Stakeholders Meeting

On Sunday, 25 May 2025, Legal Literacy Nepal (LLN) hosted a stakeholders meeting in Janakpur, Madhesh Province, to share the outcomes of a recent study examining corporal punishment in Nepalese schools. The event brought together educators, community representatives, and child rights advocates to discuss strategies for eliminating this harmful practice.

LLN organized an impactful Interschool Exchange Program on Child Safeguarding

This week (15 - 20 June, 2025), Legal Literacy Nepal (LLN) organized an impactful Interschool Exchange Program across eight schools in Tokha, engaging 418 students and teachers in critical legal and child welfare discussions. The initiative aimed to strengthen legal awareness and promote safer educational spaces through three key sessions.

LLN Conducted Training on Penal-Free Teaching Methods for Teachers

On July 4th and 5th, 2025, Legal Literacy - Nepal (LLN) organized a two-day residential training at the Social Work Institute (SWI) in Nakhu, Lalitpur. Eighteen teachers from nine community schools in Tokha Municipality participated in this program, which centered on "Penal-free Teaching Methods."

LLN Holds Social Audit and Future Planning Sharing Meeting at Tokha Municipality

On 24 September 2025, Legal Literacy Nepal (LLN) organized a sharing meeting on "Social Audit of FY 2081/82 and Future Planning" at Tokha Municipality. The program brought together 35 participants, including the Mayor, Ward Chair, head teachers, teachers, students, School Management Committee (SMC) members, and guardians.

LLN Hosts Interactive Program on "Stress Management and Art of Living"

Legal Literacy - Nepal (LLN) successfully conducted an interactive program titled "Stress Management and Art of Living" for 20 teachers representing eight community schools operating in Tokha Municipality. The program also saw the participation of representatives from Tokha Municipality, reflecting the shared commitment to promote the mental well-being of teachers and foster positive learning environments for students.

LLN Conducts Child Rights and Positive Discipline Awareness Program in Tokha

In coordination with Tokha Municipality, Legal Literacy - Nepal (LLN) successfully organized an awareness and interaction program on child rights and positive discipline on 14 December 2025, at Ward No. 9, Tokha Municipality. The program brought together 30 participants, including teachers, guardians, Municipality Children's Network with the aim of promoting violence-free, child-friendly environments at home and in schools.

LLN Organizes Two-Day Training on Psychological Counselling and Documentation

Legal Literacy Nepal (LLN) conducted a two-day capacity-building training on "Psychological Counselling and Documentation" for staff from both community, private schools and 18 school nurses operating in Tokha Municipality. The program aimed to strengthen the skills of frontline school personnel in offering initial psychosocial support and maintaining accurate documentation essential for child protection.

LLN Organized an Orientation Program on Child Rights and Safeguarding

20 Dec. 2025, Lalitpur, Legal Literacy Nepal (LLN) successfully conducted an Orientation Program on "Child Rights and Safeguarding" at the Social Work Institute (SWI), Nakhu, Lalitpur. The program aimed to raise awareness among students on child rights, child protection mechanisms, and the elimination of corporal punishment in schools.

